

ClearanceJobs.com is the premier Internet job board focused exclusively on candidates with active or current U.S. Government security clearances. As the only job board that properly differentiates between active and expired clearances, ClearanceJobs.com makes finding security-cleared candidates quicker and easier than other job boards. On ClearanceJobs.com, if candidates don't have active or current clearances, the candidates are not an option.

ClearanceJobs.com provides a number of unique and important advantages to companies that hire active security-cleared professionals:

- ClearanceJobs.com collects the most critical security clearance information from its candidates, allowing customers to search by both clearance and polygraph level.
- Clearance and polygraph information are clearly displayed at the top of every resume in the database. Employers do NOT have to search through the text of each resume to find the critical clearance information.
- ClearanceJobs.com candidates are all U.S. Citizens (a requirement for clearance) and, although concentrated in defense areas, are located throughout the country and around the world.
- ClearanceJobs.com gets the majority of its cleared candidates from referrals, which makes for a highly unique database.
- ClearanceJobs.com candidates must affirm active/current clearance status to register. Candidates found to be inactive or not current are deleted from the site.

- The site is a safe environment for top security-cleared people to post their resumes due to the screening and qualification of all employers.
- ClearanceJobs.com offers a free job posting to any employer who finds a candidate without an active/current security clearance. No competing site does.
- ClearanceJobs.com has the largest and fastest growing database of cleared job seekers available.
