The event went very well. It was our first Dice/Targeted Job Fairs event and we will definitely do more. We were very impressed with the number of quality applicants at the event and are in the process of setting up interviews with several of them.

Kim Hightower

We consistently find multiple qualified candidates at each of the Dice/Targeted Job Fairs events we attend. I have never attended a Targeted event that I was disappointed with.

I am very impressed with the quality and quantity of the candidates at Dice/Targeted Job Fairs events. The last event we participated in was outstanding and we placed several candidates. There were so many candidates that our booth was under-staffed. I look forward to the next event.

I was as busy as I've ever been at a career fair. I've been to dozens of career fairs and have never seen lines of people that deep waiting to talk to companies. The quality of candidates was very good and we will probably hire between two and five people as a result of the event.

Bill Buckley

The quality of applicants at the Las Vegas Career Fair was very good. In fact, we hired three candidates on the spot.
